I'm disgusted with the political maneuvering that is taking place regarding this entire project. Any other state, and it (the project) would be 1/2 completed by now. WSDOT and Seattle have wasted enough time and taxpayer dollars on study after study and meeting after meeting. Settle on a design and stick with it! Quit letting a few well-heeled people in Seattle hijack this project. If it's that important to Seattle, then let Seattle pay for the bridge in its entirety. Seattle: Quit meddling in State (yes, those of us outside of Seattle) business. You are NOT the only ones paying for that bridge.
